¿Qué tiene en su mochila?
What do you have in your backpack?

Students: Cut out the pictures above of items we find in a classroom. Grab your backpack or a bag and play a game of putting the photos of the items inside your backpack and telling a family member what you have in your backpack. Practice saying these sentences in Spanish while you play. If you have the actual items, great use them! Now make this more challenging by changing the "I have" to "he/she has". See below for examples:

Yo tengo los crayones.
Yo tengo las tijeras.
Yo tengo el papel.
Yo tengo el pegamento.
Yo tengo el lápiz.

I have the crayons.
I have the scissors.
I have the paper.
I have the glue.
I have the pencil.

Ella tiene los crayones.
Él tiene las tijeras.
Ella tiene el papel.
Él tiene el pegamento.
Ella tiene el lápiz.

She has the crayons.
He has the scissors.
She has the paper.
He has the glue.
She has the pencil.
